Patio Party Happy Affair

Sunday evening the W. J. daughter Marie, all of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and son Dick of Anaheim and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rickers and son George of Dominguez. Cards were the diversion of the evening.

ATTEND FAIR
 Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schooley and Marlene attended the Orange County Fair Sunday at Santa Ana.

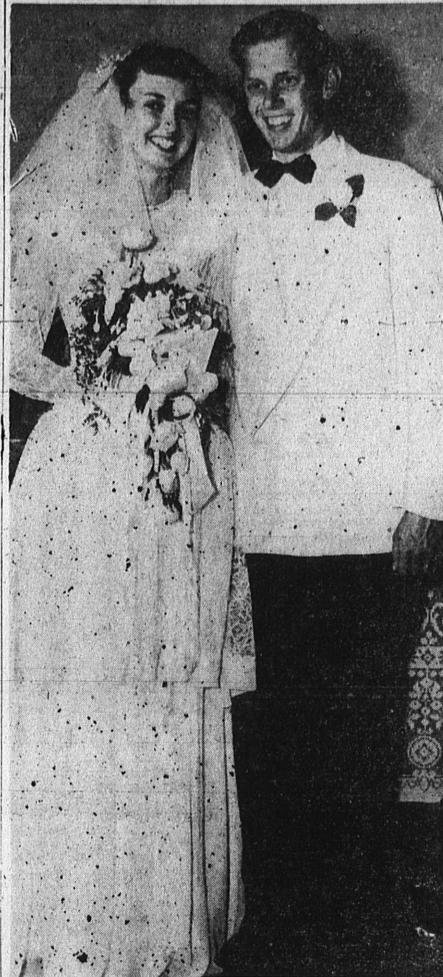

The W. W. McCanns Eloped To Be Married 25 Years Ago

The old family custom of community singing highlighted the recent 25th anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCann given at the homes of their daughters, Mrs. Leonard N. Reed and Mrs. Thomas L. Cukonip of Compton.

The party began in the home of daughter Betty, 604 1/2 N. Burris. Here at a candlelight table in the gaily decorated patio the beautiful anniversary cake was served. Here also the numerous lovely gifts were opened. Then the guests moved on to the home of the other daughter Betty, 1005 E. Elm street. And here was where coffee was served and everyone joined in the singing.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Shelby R. McCann of Lomita (Mr. McCann's parents), Gloria McCann and Kenneth McCann (son and daughter), Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCann, Long Beach (brother), Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McCann, Lomita (brother), Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harlan, San Pedro (sister of Mr. McCann), Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bell, Lakewood, Mr. Bill Harlan, San Pedro, Mr. Rom Harvey, Lomita, and the daughters with their husbands acting hosts.

An interesting sidelight to this story is that the honorees, after a whirlwind courtship, eloped, and were married August 19, 1924, at Norton, Kansas. This all began when Fern Gates (Mrs. McCann's maiden name) and Bus (Bill's brother) went on a double date with Bill McCann and Marie Rasmussen. Cukonip's arrow singled out Fern and Bill, terminating in the elopement, while Bus and Marie were married two months later.

Woman's Club Members At Bridge Party

Hollywood Riviera Clubhouse was the setting for an enjoyable bridge luncheon last Thursday afternoon when Torrance Woman's Club members and their guests were entertained.

Approximately 50 ladies enjoyed the delicious buffet luncheon with "Pig in a Poke" bridge, with Mrs. John T. Oursler, hostess for the afternoon, directing the scoring rules at the conclusion of each game.

Hilarious highlights were reached when players were told to add points for having worn nail polish, for having a child under three years in their homes. Still other scores mounted when Mrs. Oursler directed the scoring rules at the conclusion of each game.

Her score by her shoe size. The climax came when members were permitted to multiply their already high scores by the number of years each had been active in the Woman's Club.

Proceeds from the successful ways and means project will swell the club treasury.

Lomitans Trek To Old Mexico

The Max Garrens with sons James and Thomas of 24406 Marigold avenue, have had two enjoyable vacations this summer. After having spent a week at Lake Henshaw they embarked on a pleasant little trek to old Mexico, where they attended the dog races at Caliente and dropped in on Tijuana.

Places of interest visited in San Diego were the zoo, museum, aquarium and the man-made museum, at Balboa Park.
